

Britannica Online School Edition

- THREE encyclopedias for all levels of reading:
Encyclopaedia Britannica – High school
Compton's by Britannica - Middle School
Britannica Elementary
- Detailed maps of more than 200 countries

Student Resource Center

- Full-text articles from more than 350 magazines and newspapers, updated daily
- Periodical back files from 1980
- Nearly 45,000 biographies, criticisms, essays

Search online books in our St. Francis HS Library with the

Gale virtual Reference Library

Encyclopedia of World Biography - 17 vols.

Biographies on 7,000 notables from every part of the world and from all time periods. Includes thousands of photos, a consolidated index, and more.

Encyclopedia of Everyday Law - 2 vols

Focuses on the theory and history behind the law and more practical guides dealing with the law and its everyday effect upon its citizens. Articles include brief descriptions of each issue's historical background, profiles of various U.S. laws and regulations, details of how laws and regulations vary from state to state.

Encyclopedia of Public Health - 4 vols.

Examines topics as broad in range as environmental health, drug abuse, epidemiology, nutrition, demographics, and diseases. Includes overviews, definitions, and biographical entries.

Renaissance & Reformation Reference Library -5 vols.

Covering everything from Luther's Revolt to the writings of Shakespeare, this set provides comprehensive coverage of this amazing time. Includes extensive background information on the period, approximately 50 biographies of people of the era, and includes full or excerpted speeches, diary entries, newspaper and magazine articles, poems, and documents.

World War II Reference Library – 4 vols.

Covers significant events, topics, and people related to the World War II period. Provides the in-depth information that students need to write reports and class assignments, including biographical profiles and primary source materials.

The Scribner Writers Series includes 1,564 essays on authors of all nationalities and time periods, and provides biographical and critical overviews. Each essay includes a concise introductory preface and a biography placing the author's work within a personal and historical framework.

Twayne's Authors Series In-depth critical introduction to the lives and works of writers. Features the content of nearly 600 books from the print series United States Authors, English Authors, and World Authors

Nettrekker

Students can search the Internet for school projects and get high quality results every time. Net Trekker provides a complete K-12 academic search tool with content customized for Elementary (K-5) or Secondary (6-12).

Nettrekker contains thousands of academic-approved Websites that are specifically organized around K-12 curricula. A team of 400 educators and librarians evaluate each Websites for academic integrity and age appropriateness before they are considered for inclusion.

Literature in Context

Greenwood Media

Historical, social , cultural context of classic literature.

Galileo (Georgia Libraries Learning Online) It is sponsored by the state of Georgia providing access over 100 databases of periodicals and scholarly journals. It also provides access to encyclopedias, government publications, and selected internet links.

Click on Galileo:

MAS Ultra (Ebsco) periodical database geared to High School.
Literature Online Reference Edition - literary criticism.
Platinum Periodicals (Proquest) – mags., newspapers

Click on Databases A-Z at top if you want longer list.

You must contact your public library for password access.
The password changes four times a year on March 24, June 27, September 12, December 12.

All students can sign up for Fulton County Library cards in fall.